This beautifully updated split-level home offers modern finishes, functional space, and a welcoming layout all in a quiet Lansing neighborhood. Step inside to discover a bright and stylish kitchen featuring white shaker cabinets, granite countertops, stainless steel appliances, and a sleek black subway tile backsplash with eye-catching metallic accents. The bathroom continues the upscale vibe with a double vanity, matte black fixtures, and a full tiled shower/bath combo. The home's curb appeal is enhanced by a fresh gray exterior, white trim, and a charming front porch with wood accents. The large driveway and attached garage provide ample parking, while the backyard offers room to relax or play. Located close to schools, parks, and just minutes from Fort Leavenworth, this home is ideal for military families, professionals, or anyone looking to enjoy modern living in a convenient location.
